Severely dry skin is extremely sensitive. When deficient in lipids, the skin is unable to function as a barrier against outside irritants and easily becomes irritated. To respond to these needs, La Roche-Posay has developed LIPIKAR, a complete line of cleansing and skincare products for severely dry skin in children and adults.

The lipid-replenishing efficiency of these products resets on a natural ingredient with exceptional properties: Shea Butter. It nourishes, protects and soothes the driest skin and restores the lipids it lacks (unsaturated fatty acids, healing anti-irritant sterols) to rediscover suppleness and comfort. It is easily absorbed by the skin and perfectly tolerated.

Formulated with a gentle cleansing base enriched with lipid-replenishing, shea butter, these cleansers gently clean the skin. They protect the integrity of the hydrolipidic layer and protect against the drying effects of water.

La Roche-Posay - Rosaliac UV Anti-Redness Moisturizer SPF 15

Product ID: 39063

Dermatologists observe that delicate and reactive skin is by nature susceptible to the influence of certain factors (sun, pollution, stress) which can generate an inflammatory reaction that results in redness and discomfort at the surface of the skin. Below the surface, this reaction triggers a vicious cycle that further aggravates the fragility of the skin, and leads to a persistent appearance of red patches.

Rosaliac UV has been formulated to neutralize redness and help protect skin from the vicious cycle caused by external aggravators. The smooth and refreshing texture instantly soothes skin. Redness is neutralized and the skin tone is more even and luminous. With daily use, skin is protected and reinforced against external factors.

- Helps shield fragile skin from damaging UV rays
- Helps neutralize redness
- Helps restore lasting comfort and luminosity
- Rich texture
- Non-comedogenic
- Fragrance-free
- Paraben-free
- Tested under dermatological control
